EUROPEAN COUNCIL CONCLUSION ON EU-UK RELATIONS

15 OCTOBER BRUSSELS

Paris, Washington DC, 16.10.2020, 03:00 Time

USPA NEWS - The European Council defines the general political orientations and priorities of the EU. Not being one of the legislative institutions of the EU, it does not take part in negotiations on or adoption of EU legislation. Instead, it sets the EU's agenda for action, usually by adopting conclusions at European Council meetings highlighting areas of concern and actions to be taken.

II. EU-UK RELATIONS

3. The European Council recalls that the transition period will end on 31 December 2020 and notes with concern that progress on the key issues of interest to the Union is still not sufficient for an agreement to be reached.
4. The European Council reaffirms the Union's determination to have as close as possible a partnership with the United Kingdom on the basis of the negotiating directives of 25 February 2020, while respecting the previously agreed European Council guidelines, as well as statements and declarations, notably those of 25 November 2018, in particular as regards the level playing field, governance and fisheries.
5. Against this background, the European Council invites the Union's chief negotiator to continue negotiations in the coming weeks, and calls on the UK to make the necessary moves to make an agreement possible.
6. As regards the Internal Market Bill tabled by the UK government, the European Council recalls that the Withdrawal Agreement and its Protocols must be fully and timely implemented.
7. The European Council calls upon Member States, Union institutions and all stakeholders to step up their work on preparedness and readiness at all levels and for all outcomes, including that of no agreement, and invites the Commission, in particular, to give timely consideration to unilateral and time-limited contingency measures that are in the EU's interest.
8. The European Council will remain seized of the matter. Source: European Council
